Pep assembly was a splash!

Mr. Howell makes a mean PB+J!

Darlene Chavez gets into the Pom dance!

Bottom left: Mr. Griffith comments on the football team, and Mr. Conatser speaks about the cross-country team.

Middle right: Virginia Hancock participates in the pledge.

Bottom right: Tom Breeze and Germaine Mayberry struggle through the blind dressing contest.

Sue and Bill Techlenburg were honored as dedicatees.

King Pat Ruiz and Queen Jodi Provinzano

Homecoming 1987

Principal Paul Reynolds conducts the assembly

Yolanda Montano proudly signs the Royalty Song.

Are these two the king and queen for the year 2003?

These ladies seem to be enjoying the assembly.

Look at these studly men!

Seniors proudly accept first place on their float.

"Be True To Your School"

HOMECOMING KING, QUEEN, AND COURT: Mike Hardy, Jason Moser, Tom Breeze, Pat Ruiz, Germaine Mayberry, Jodi Provinzano, Tamara Aberle, Elizabeth Fonk, Gerri Wilcox, and Deanna Tyler.

The Boogie Boys really "Wiped-Out"!

"A What..?"asked Amber Meritt, Nancy Cardon, Loy Engelhardt, and Jennifer Huckabee.

Henry Smith took a whack at the Redskin's car.

Tiger Prine, Sandi Williams, and Lisa Lucero disagreed on the judging.

The Homecoming Royalty were presented at half-time.

Homecoming 1987 was a great success. There was participation during the week on the floats as well as on traitor day, twin day, black and blue day, beach bum, and color day.

The announcement of the dedicatee, Mrs. Sue Tecklenburg and the memory of her late husband Bill, received a standing ovation.

The queen candidates were Tammy Aberle, Liz Fonk, Jodi Provinzano, Deanna Tyler, and Gerri Wilcox. The king candidates were Tom Breeze, Mike Hardy, Germaine Mayberry, Jason Moser, and Pat Ruiz.

Finally at the assembly Pat and Jodi were crowned king and queen.

Seniors built the winning float.

Dedicatee

This year's Meteor Dedicatee is Jim Boles. Mr. Boles began teaching World History in 1962. Between the years 1963-80 he taught American History. He has been the Asst. Principal at WHS for the last 8 years. Some of his hobbies include restoring old houses and antiques, church activities, and carpentry.

Staff tamed deadline waves

April Seto, Jodi Provinzano, Nichole Nimtz, and Anthony Monroe make layout changes.

Editor Jodi Provinzano bares her teeth at the staff in order to "get the lead out..."

Business manager Becky Conatser gives a client her friendliest smile.

Asst. editor Ike Bonds considers a layout proposal.

(Right) Donnell Mayberry listens to the Josten's rep while (far right) Mr. Taylor checks a spread.

Barry Lancaster and Lita Gonzales offer advise to newcomers to the staff.

Amber Meritt and Sandi Williams try their best to unravel the secrets of film rolling.

Jeb Earl studies over his photograph options.

Yolanda Montano thinks that if she closes her eyes tight enough, her picture won't be taken. Ha!

Editor April Seto says adios to everyone!

Campus Life is a WIPE-OUT

Doug Walton and Anthony Montano prepared an engine for their Indy racer.

Jodi Provinzano was finally caught in a happy mood.

Tracy Horton and Renee Sanchez actually look like lost freshmen!

Was Vaunda Hancock typing or listening to Whitesnake?

At Right: Jeannie Harbolt (Winslow's first female football player!) and Darlene Chavez took an "open book" test.

Stacy Ervien and Pricilla Montoya gave the camera their best "chemistry is cool" smiles.

Tammy Seto asked Tim Wilcox, "Does Mr. Henling assign a research paper?"

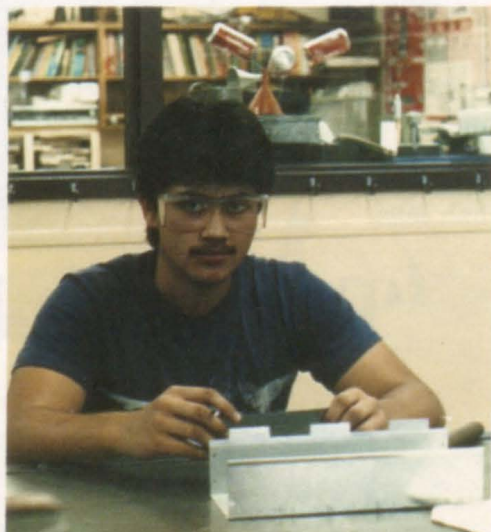

After Mike Hardy finished gossiping with everyone in class, he began to talk with people in the hall!

Lisa Consiglio wasn't caught napping, this time!

Two weightlifters prepared for their individual sports.

Boney Candelaria put the finishing touches on his metals project.

Chris Sanchez attempted his ballet bibasis.

Georgia Kretsedemas, Betina Rodriguez, Shannon Long, Cindy Manzanares, Tiffany Kolomitz, and Donna Montano showed their spirit during the assembly.

"Come on, Rebecca; it's not that bad!"

Derrick Land gave us a girlish smile to match his girlish legs.

Dean Osborne showed off the new fall fashions.

"Freshman bought as slaves!!"

WHEELIGHTY

WHS activities were great! Let's hear it for the people who participated during the year.

ACTIVITIES

Board OK'ed improvements

After the district approved the bond election in the spring of 1987, the Governing Board has had the responsibility to mete out the new revenues.

Not only did the board approve raises for the staff, it also allocated money for school improvements. The high school interior was completely repainted. Carpeting was installed in several rooms on the third floor. New heating systems were used to replace the old radiator system. Finally, cement ramps were installed, and the north parking lot was repaired.

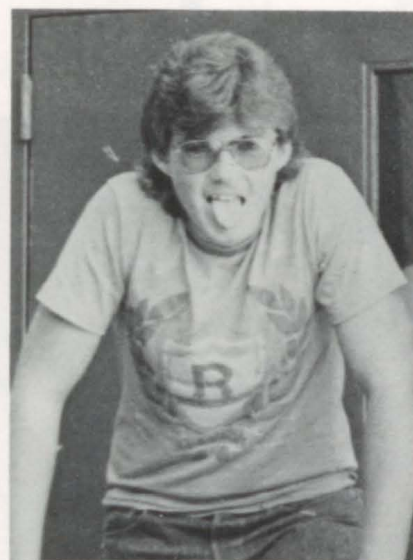

Officers totally flipped out!

Loy, April, and Jay "overthrow" Korey Doucette, the student body president.

Jay and April are hard at work.

The student body officers led student council meetings, approved money-making projects, and promoted school spirit. Korey Doucette, student body president; Jay Simonton, student body vice-president; April Seto, student body secretary; and Loy Englehart, student body treasurer, each provided the leadership and experience needed to guide the student council.

Student Council had Impact

This past year's student council sponsor, Mrs. Linda Long, along with officers Korey Doucette, Jay Simonton, April Seto, and Loy Engelhardt, worked to promote more participation in pep assemblies and school activities.

The traditional student council convention, held at Laughlin, Nevada, was inspirational, and the members who attended the convention came back to Winslow full of enthusiasm.

Lack of experience proved to be tough competition for the young Lady Bulldogs. The team had only two experienced seniors, captain Bencita Nelson and co-captain Tamara Aberle.

They ended the year with a conference record of 5-9 and an overall record of 9-11.

Because the team will only lose two seniors to graduation, the Lady Bulldogs are looking forward to improving their record.

The Lady Bulldogs had an outstanding year! They finished the season with an impressive 24 wins and 4 losses, 3 of which were at the hands of the 1988 State Champions, Window Rock.

Highlighting the 87-88 season for the Lady Bulldogs was their first place finish at the Winter Classic Basketball Tournament.

After placing second at the divisional tournament, the Bulldogs went to the state tournament. They won the first game against a strong Safford team and finished the season with another exciting game with Window Rock. The players that were named to the All-Division 1st Team were Bencita Nelson and Karen Cox, 2nd Team was Sharon Cox, and Honorable Mention was Lynne Baca. The players that were named to the All-State Team were Jackie Shirley and Karen Cox.

Senior Bencita Nelson broke the girl's school record scoring 34 points in one game.

Future Democrat and Republican: Loy Engelhardt and Tom Greenwood.

Teacher's pets: April Seto & Tom Breeze.
Hot dog of the year: David Tyler.

Hip laugh: Jason Moser
Most automobile wipe-outs: David Rublin.

Biggest casanova dude and chick: Tyrone Mayberry and Debbie Wischmann.

Best and Most found on Winslow beaches.

Most Bogus: Travis Howeth and Jodi Provinzano.
Best Dressed: Joe Lopez and Ronnie Witmer.

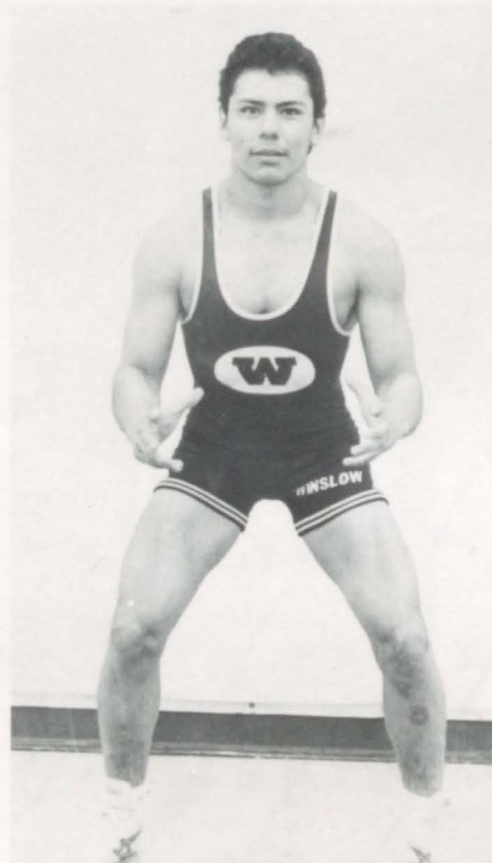

Most Brain Dead: Jeff Wood and Lisa Nelson.

This year's Best and Most categories were based upon the book's theme, Wipe-Out.

The faces and figures seen on these pages could well represent people found on the beaches of the West Coast.

Keep them in mind when California falls into the ocean during the next earthquake. Winslow may very well have a beach of its own.

Future Lifeguard: Robert Gonzales.

Foxiest Chick: Deanna Tyler.

Even though it may have been touch and go at times, you made it! Your high school days are behind you now — a collection of  fine memories of people, places & fun.
But don't despair. Take a look at what lies ahead.

New challenges  Exciting adventures. And more fun!
So, keep your chin up. Your nose to the grindstone. And go for the gusto!

Life is what  you make it,  so make it the best.
And remember, all your friends at Valley Bank  wish you all good things  in your future.

To: April

This year has gone by so fast. It's really hard to believe you're leaving. You've always been there for me (even when I didn't want it). I always thought it would be so great when you left because you were my "stupid" sister that got EVERYTHING! Now, when I think about it, I know that I will miss you more than I ever thought was possible. Thank you for being there to love me and especially watch out for me. I love you very much.

Your "little" sister Dawn

To: Mike Chacon

If I could give you One thing, I would give you the ability to see Yourself as others see you...	Then you would realize What a truly special person you are, And how very special you are to me. I will always love you, Mike.

*During the high school years it's so,
Only one time through we go.
When we first step foot in this school,
We thought we were so cool!
Homecoming, Prom, and pep assemblies
The Class of '88 formed valuable memories.
Of the memories good and bad
There are many that we've had.
Treasure and cherish that special touch
Of friendship and bonds that meant so much.
Until that time we meet again
Love to all is what we send.*
